VA Attendance Acknowledgement

Veterans will comply with Richmond Community College class attendance policies and attendance requirements from the Department of Veteran's Affairs. The last day of attendance must be reported to the VA for students who stop attending or are dropped/withdrawn from a course prior to the official end date of the course. RCC students receiving VA educational benefits are required to turn in attendance sheets to the VA certifying official.

By signing below, I understand I am required to turn in a completed attendance sheet every two weeks that includes my instructors' signature for traditional classroom classes and hybrid classes. Online class attendance is being monitored by the VA Certifying Official. I also understand that if I fail to turn in the attendance sheets in a timely manner, I will lose my certification until the attendance sheets are completed, which will result in an interruption in my benefits and possibly a student debt owed to the VA.
