

YOU SHOULD BE DANCING! SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER

Thursday, February 11, 2016-7:30 PM

Break out the bellbottoms and leisure suits!

Who doesn't remember the 1977 movie starring John Travolta? The smash hit film changed the way we dance forever! All the magic and music of the movie is brought to the stage by this production that played on Broadway for over 500 performances.

One of the most beloved dance stories of all time in a spectacular new production, Saturday Night Fever is the coming of age tale of young Tony Manero who learns the value of life in 1970's Brooklyn. With an extraordinary ability to dance, Tony is the king while in the disco. His weekend dancing helps him temporarily forget the reality of his life: a dead-end job, clashes with his unsupportive and squabbling parents, and his associations with a gang of macho friends. When he meets Stephanie, who also dreams of a world beyond Brooklyn, and they decide to train together for a dance competition, their lives begin to change forever.

This musical is packed with legendary hits from the Bee Gees, including "Stayin' Alive," "Night Fever," "Jive Talking," "You Should Be Dancing" and "How Deep is Your Love," in addition to several new songs written especially for this production.

The production will prove that Saturday Night Fever "gets at something deeply romantic: the need to move, to dance, and the need to be who you'd like to be."
