

Saturday, December 12, 2015-7:30 PM

Excitedly welcoming back everyone's favorite family band!

The Lowe Family are no strangers to the Cole Auditorium. Having performed here in November 2012, they are warmly welcomed back with a Christmas celebration to remember. This performance will feature traditional Christmas carols, secular and sacred songs, and maybe even a sing-along or two!

The Lowe Family has been entertaining hundreds of thousands around the world for over 25 years. All of the Lowe siblings began studying and performing the music of the masters from very young ages. Soon, additional instruments, dance classes and vocal lessons were added...along with more teachers and more practice time. The rest is history. The same can now be said about the grandchildren, who will be appearing with the group for this performance.

As seen on ABC, CBS, PBS and other stations worldwide, The Lowe Family has distinguished themselves as consummate performers across the globe, giving select concerts in Europe, Canada, Latin America and China, while continuing to captivate audiences throughout America.

Versatile on many instruments, the Lowes offer an amazing blend of show-stopping classical, Broadway, Irish, jazz, bluegrass, old-time favorites, spectacular dance, gospel and Christmas favorites, old and new. This high-energy, fast-paced variety show will leave you breathless!

After every performance the same words seem to resonate in the theatre, "How can one family have so much energy and so much talent!?"

Additional photos and videos are available online.

