

Fall 2020 Admission Requirements for
Associate Degree Nursing (ADN) Program
Traditional Two Year Pathway August 2020 to May 2022(Day Classes)
These items below are required for the ADN selection process by January 31, 2020:

- Apply for admission to Richmond Community College and NC Residency Application
- Successfully completed or Exempted from DRE 098 & DMA 010 through DMA 050 or successfully completed or exempted from MAT 003 Tier 2, ENG 002
- Request official high school transcript or GED scores to be sent to Office of Admissions
- Request official transcripts from ALL colleges and schools attended since High School to be sent to Office of Admissions
- Complete an application for the Nursing Program(s) between June 1, 2019 to January 31, 2020 to start in Fall Semester 2020 (Must complete before taking the TEAS)
- Take the Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) with a minimum composite score of 58 and minimum of 55 on the Math Section. TEAS scores expire after 3 years.
 - (63 composite score is required if in a previous ADN program or BSN program)
- Submit documentation of state approved Nursing Assistant I training and registry listing by June 1, 2020
- Must have a 2.5 program GPA (GPA is calculated based on courses completed in Box 1 of the ADN point sheet. An ADN applicant must have at least 12 credit hours completed or the unweighted high school GPA will be used or cumulative GPA from a college degree from a regionally accredited college).

Once a Nursing Applicant has completed the Admission Requirements for ADN listed above, the applicant will enter into a competitive admissions process based on a point system. Points are calculated in February 2020. A copy of the point sheet is sent to ADN applicants who complete Admission Requirements along with further instructions on the remainder of the Admissions Process by March 31st, 2020.
