SKIP BREVIS (Music Supervisor) is a busy New York City pianist, arranger, musical director, composer, performer, producer and consultant who works with top artists in theater, music and film. He co-created, arranged, and musical directed the original production of Beehive, the '60s Musical. Other original works include Winner Take All (A Rock Opera) which premiered at the NY International Fringe Festival, and Showdown!, an interactive Motown "American Idol" spoof now in its seventh year in Europe and the Mediterranean. His long running R&B show band, The Stingers, continues to perform at events around the world. Skip is thrilled to be working again with director Jeff Moss, choreographer Denis Jones, and the fabulous ZON Companies!

CASEY BREVES (Vocal Supervisor) performs across the United States, Europe, and Asia as both a pop and classical vocalist. Born and raised in New York, he sang with the Grammy Award-winning male vocal ensemble Chanticleer for three seasons immediately after graduating from Yale, where he was a member of Schola Cantorum, the Duke's Men of Yale and the Whiffenpoofs. He has been recording and producing originals and covers of pop music, and releasing videos on YouTube. His duet with Sam Tsui, covering Ed Sheeran and Sam Smith, has received more than 29 million views to date. Casey was a guest soloist on "SNL" and has shared a stage with such artists as Kylie Minogue and Marc Broussard. He recently opened for Bon Jovi in Indonesia and sang backup for Adele on her NBC Special. Casey performs regularly while writing and recording a debut original album. His YouTube channel can be found at youtube.com/caseybrevesmusic.

ETHAN ANDERSEN (Music Director) As a music director, composer, and pianist, he has enjoyed credits in New York and regionally across the country including Flat Rock Playhouse, Theatre Raleigh, and Le Petit Theatre. His original musical, HeadVoice, was recently produced Off-Broadway as a part of the New York Musical Theatre Festival. Love to Mom, Dad, Justine, and Madison. Proud Elon University alum. www.ethan-andersen.com.
