

Medication Administration

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to take the North Carolina state exam for Medication Technician for becoming a Medication Aide, administered by the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services and the Pearson Vue.