Methodology Regarding CRRSSA/HEERF II/HEERF III/ARP Fall 2021 Disbursement

The Leadership Team of RichmondCC decided in August 2021 that another disbursement of CRRSSA/HEERF II/HEERF III/ARP student funds needed to be made and worked together to decide on the criteria and timing for the award. Once again, exceptional need was taken into account and a list was generated that contained all currently enrolled (as of September 20, 2021) non-high school curriculum students, which totaled 1,306 students. The list also contained the student's total completed and current hours (as of 9/20/2021) for Fall 2021, as well as their Expected Family Contribution (EFC), as calculated from their FAFSA. Based on this list and further discussions, it was decided that students with an EFC from 0 to 5846 (threshold for Pell eligibility) would qualify for the full funding on a sliding scale based on their hourly load. For students with an EFC above 5846, or if they had no EFC on file, the student would qualify for 50% of the original amount, based on load. Students that had an EFC of 0 - 5846 would be eligible for up to $1,800, depending on their load. Students that have an EFC above 5846 (or no EFC on file) would be eligible for up to $900 depending on their load (see charts below). Total disbursement for this methodology was $1,422,674.00.

EFC 0 - 5846 (951 students, total disbursement $1,206,900.00)

12 hours or greater	$1,800
9-11 hours	$1,350
6-8 hours	$900
3-5 hours	$450
1-2 hours	$225

EFC >5846 or no EFC (355 students, total disbursement $215,774.00)

12 hours or greater	$900
9-11 hours	$675
6-8 hours	$450
3-5 hours	$225
1-2 hours	$112

Dear Student:

Over the past year, the COVID virus has continued to impact our lives in every possible way. Richmond Community College understands that it has affected each of our students, and we are here to support you through every resource available.

One of those resources is special limited-time financial support. Congress has provided institutions with funding through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund to assist students with exceptional financial need. Based on information from your Federal financial aid application and the number of hours you are currently enrolled in, you have been selected to receive this one-time funding to assist you in completing your education.

The College will continue to evaluate the available funding and student need during the next several months. We do expect to make additional disbursements for eligible students that are taking classes this Fall semester and for the 2022 Spring semester.

The expected disbursement date for future awards are December 2021, February 2022, and April 2022.

Enclosed you will find a check and it is our hope that this funding will ease some of the financial burdens you experienced and allow you to continue your education at Richmond Community College.

Sincerely,

William D. McInnis, Ed.D.
President
