Section 2: Head of Household Eligibility

Complete Section 2 if your parent is married and your parent filed as Head of Household.

Per IRS Publication 501, the Head of Household status is for unmarried individuals who provide more than 50% of the cost for keeping up a home and have a qualifying dependent.

For the purposes of tax filing status determination, you are considered married for the whole year if, on the last day of your tax year, you and your spouse meet any one of the following tests:

1. You are married and living together as a married couple.
2. You are living together in a common-law marriage recognized in the state where you now live or in the state where the common law marriage began.
3. You are married and living apart, but not legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance.
4. You are separated under an interlocutory (not final) decree of divorce.

Complete this section if you were eligible to file head of household:

Head of Household Requirements
By Checking each requirement you are certifying that you meet this requirement.
<input type="checkbox"/>	You paid more than half the cost of keeping up a home for the year.
<input type="checkbox"/>	You supported a qualifying person who lived with you in the home for more than half a year.
<input type="checkbox"/>	You are unmarried or considered unmarried on the last day of the year.

Note: If you do not meet ALL of the requirements above for Head of Household status, an amended tax return (1040X) may be required to correct your (or your parent's or spouse's) tax filing status with the IRS. Please submit a signed copy of the 2019 amended tax return that you have submitted to the IRS along with your 2019 IRS Tax Return Transcript to the Financial Aid office.

Section 3: Explanation of Tax Filing Status

Please explain why you were allowed to use the tax filing status given your marital status. Please provide a letter of explanation from your tax preparer on signed letterhead or IRS, if available. Visit <http://www.irs.gov/publications/p501/index.html> for information on federal tax filing requirements.
